

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

When I Am Old With You

Characters: Chorus
 Boy 2

Boy 1
Boy 3

Chorus: When I am old with you, Granddaddy...

Boy 1: I will sit in a big rocking chair beside you and talk about everything.

Chorus: When I am old with you, Granddaddy...

Boy 2: An old dog will sit by my feet, and I will swat flies all afternoon.

Chorus: When I am old with you, Granddaddy...

Boy 3: We'll go fishing down by that old pond with the flat rocks all around.

Chorus: Granddaddy, when I am old with you...

Boy 1: We will play cards all day underneath that old tree by the road. We'll drink cool water from a jug and wave at all the cars that go by.

Chorus: Granddaddy, when I am old with you...

Boy 2: We'll play cards till the lightning bugs shine in the trees. We won't mind that we forget to keep score.

Chorus: Granddaddy, when I am old with you...

Boy 3: We will open up that old cedar chest and try on all the old clothes that your granddaddy left you.

Chorus: When I am old with you, Granddaddy...

Boy 1: We will cook bacon for breakfast and that's all. We can eat it on the porch too.

Chorus: When I am old with you, Granddaddy...

Boy 2: We can roast corn on a big fire and invite everyone we know to come over and eat it. They'll all dance, play cards, and talk about everything.

Chorus: When I am old with you, Granddaddy...

Boy 3: We can take a trip to the ocean. Have you ever seen the ocean Granddaddy?

Chorus: Granddaddy, when I am old with you...

Boy 1: We will get on the tractor and ride through the fields of grass. We will see the trees in the distance and remember when this field was a forest.

Chorus: Granddaddy, when I am old with you...

Boy 2: We will take long walks and speak to all the people who walk by us. We'll know them all, Granddaddy, and they'll know us.

Chorus: Granddaddy, when I am old with you...

Boy 3: At the end of our walk, when we're tired, Granddaddy, I will set in a big rocking chair... beside you.